

Two Family Events in Sunbury— One Great Day! Saturday, November 15th 10:00-4:00

Tickets are 2-for-1 and allow all-day admission to both events

Adults: $8—Children Ages 6-18: $6—Children Under 6: Free

Melon Bluff Nature & Heritage Reserve Fall Live Oaking Day

Come learn about the story of one of the South's most fascinating eras when the Live Oak was the most valuable tree in the world, shaping the fate of nations... Climb our 40-foot Treetop Viewing Platform, find out how ships made of live oak float when the wood sinks in water, try a taste of hardtack, visit with grizzled live oak poachers, and, naturally, stroll among Melon Bluff's glorious centuries-old oaks....

Re-enactors, Activities & Refreshments

Historic Seabrook Village Fall Family Festival

“Field-To-Feast”—learn about farming and help make—and taste!—old-timey coastal foods

Old-Time Children's Games & Scarecrow Contest

Crafts and jewelry from natural materials

Local handmade doll silent auction

Enjoy and learn to make old-time holiday decorations that made the season festive even in hard times

Famous Seminole Pea™ Hoppin' John available for holiday sales—call (912) 884-7008 to pre-order for pick-up on the 15th

And much, much more!

DIRECTIONS

From I-95 Georgia Exit 76 (Midway/Sunbury), follow brown-and-white Liberty Trail signs east to Melon Bluff (3 miles) and Seabrook Village (4½ miles). From Hinesville, travel east on US84 to I-95 and follow signs.

(912) 884-5779*(912) 884-7008

www.melonbluff.com*www.seabrookvillage.org